

Rehearsal/ Ticket Agreement

Rehearsal commitment

JStage does all it can to ensure that we are extremely productive with our rehearsals. It is for that reason we ask the parents to please understand the following:

1. Make sure that your child attends rehearsals on time and in proper attire. If your child misses or is late to a rehearsal, he/she might be pulled from the scene or musical number being taught at that particular rehearsal. This is not intended to punish the child. We are on a very tight rehearsal schedule and do not have the time to re-teach scenes or musical numbers.
2. Attendance is important. We have a very short rehearsal schedule and cover a lot of material in one rehearsal. It is for that reason if your child misses more the five Sunday rehearsals he/she will be pulled from the cast without a refund.

If illness or conflict arises, please contact Sandra Hodgkins at 949-435-3400 ext. 161 or sandrah@jcoc.org as soon as possible.

Ticket Sales

In order to keep JStage participant fees down, we ask that each cast member sell a minimum of 14 tickets ($10 per ticket). Cast members will be given their 14 tickets to sell on the first day of rehearsal. The cash/checks for the tickets are due back a month before the performance, April 27th. If the cash/ checks for the tickets have not been turned in by that date your credit card will be charged $140.00. If not all of the 14 tickets have been sold your credit card will be charged for any unsold tickets. For families with more then one child in the show we are asking you to sell a total of 18 tickets ($180).

By signing below I understand and consent to this agreement. Cast members will not be assigned a part without this agreement.
